

TALENT AT WORK ERASMUS+ MOBILITY CONSORTIUM

Grants for traineeship mobilities abroad and selection criteria

The Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna - as Coordinating Institution of the Consortium "Talent at Work" - issues the following call for the awarding of Erasmus+ Traineeship grants aimed at funding short- or long-term traineeship mobilities abroad, including blended mobilities.

In detail, the project 2022-1-IT02-KA131-HED-000060918 CUP 51B22001190006 allocates to the Consortium a total budget of 141,450.00 Euros for Erasmus+ Traineeship mobilities.

The call is destined to the formation of six rankings, two per participating institution, of which one will rank applications for mobilities towards Programme Countries and the other applications for mobilities towards Partner Countries, which will be assigned up to the 20% of the total budget.

With a view to optimising the use of mobility funds available to the Consortium "Talent at Work", in case of residual funds allocated to the same Consortium under the Erasmus + 2021 call, and of selection of mobilities with duration and characteristics compatible with the requirements of the 2021 call, the three institutions reserve the right to assess the possibility of funding these mobilities with residual 2021 funds.

Art. 1 Aims

The ERASMUS+ Programme in support of education, training, youth and sport, for the period 2021-2027 (Key Action 131) allows first-, second- and third-cycle students to carry out periods of training in companies, training centers, research centers, universities and other organisations located in one of the countries participating in the Programme or in a partner country (a list of which can be found in Table A, Article 6, of the present call for application).

It will be possible to allocate a maximum of 20% of the total budget to mobilities taking place in a Partner country. These mobilities will therefore be funded following the rankings order until the above limit is reached. The remaining mobilities, if deemed eligible, may be authorised at zero grant, or funded by any other sources, if available.

The Programme provides a financial contribution (grant) to partially cover the expenses incurred by beneficiaries during a period of mobility for traineeship abroad, which may be supplemented by individual institutions on the basis of internal Regulations and any ministerial co-financing received.

Mobility in more than one country is possible only in the case that the Host Company/Institution signing the Learning Agreement for Traineeship is responsible for the entire duration of the traineeship in all seats: this implies that there must be a relationship between the different Host Companies/Institutions (e.g.: main office and respective dislocated locations, etc.). This mobility must comply with the minimum duration of 2 months (60 full days) at each of the Host Enterprises/Facilities, except for short-term mobilities with a total duration of at least 5 and maximum 30 days.

Art. 2 Application deadline, duration of the mobility, limitations and compatibilities

In order to be eligible, mobilities must start:

after 27th February 2023 for Scuola Sant'Anna and Scuola IMT

after 1st May 2023 for Scuola Normale Superiore

The starting dates for mobilities towards Partner Countries should be planned by candidates allotting the necessary time for the administrative procedures necessary to obtain entry visas, if needed.

All mobilities must end by 31st July 2024.

In order to be eligible, each mobility for traineeship must involve a physical mobility of at least two months (60 full days) and not longer than twelve months (360 days).

It is also possible to apply for a short-term physical mobility with a duration between 5 and 30 days, but, in the case of students from first- and second-cycle courses, the mobility must also include a mandatory virtual component for which candidates won't receive any scholarship.

During each study-cycle, it is possible to activate one or more periods of Erasmus+ mobility (for study or traineeship) adding up to a maximum of 12 months.

Any mobility periods for study or traineeship already carried out under the Erasmus+ Programme during the same study cycle count towards the maximum of 12 months described above. For the academic year 2022-2023, students who have already benefited from an Erasmus grant for study and/or traineeship previously, and who, in the study cycle during which they are applying, still have a minimum remaining period of 2 months (or 5 days, in case of short-term mobilities) in which to carry out a traineeship, may also apply. Previous or current Erasmus mobility periods must in any case be declared on the application form.

Study cycles are defined as follows:

First Cycle: Bachelor's degree;

Second Cycle: Master's degree and single-cycle Master's degree;

Third Cycle: Second-level Master courses and PhD courses.

While abroad, it will be possible to extend the mobility period only if the entire stay, including the extension, does not exceed the maximum limit described above. The extension must be linked to the initial period, without interruption, and must be authorised by the host company/organisation and the sending institution. The subsequential payment of an additional contribution by the sending institution will take place in relation to available Erasmus+, ministerial and/or Institutional funding. The request must be made at least one month before the end date indicated in the financial agreement and authorised by the host company/structure and the sending institution.

Art. 3 Blended mobility

Any periods of mobility for traineeship of any duration may be carried out in a blended form combining a physical mobility with a virtual component. In such cases, the virtual part may be carried out before, during or after the physical part.

The physical mobility must respect the minimum duration foreseen by the Programme Guide, i.e. 2 months or, for short-mobilities, 5 days.

The virtual part of the mobility carried out in the sending country does not grant the right to any fundings and does not count towards the maximum Erasmus mobility period per study cycle.

Art. 4 Host organisations

The receiving organisations for a traineeship can be:

- Higher Education Institutions based in a Programme Country and awarded with an ECHE (Erasmus Charter for Higher Education),
- Higher Education Institutions based in a Partner Country recognised by competent authorities that have signed inter-institutional agreements with the Home Institution before the start of the mobility

Please note that, in order to undertake a mobility to a Higher Education Institution in a Partner Country (please see a list of the countries indicated as Partner Countries in Table A), an Erasmus Bilateral Agreement must be signed between the home institution and the host University before the start of the mobility. Interested students are advised to consult their own International Relations Office to find out about any positions available in Partner Countries which do not require the signing of the bilateral agreement or with which their own institution have already signed an Erasmus agreement.

- any Programme or Partner Country public or private organisation active in the labour market or in the fields of education, training, youth, research and innovation. For example, such organisation can be:
 - a public or private, a small, medium or large enterprise (including social enterprises);
 - a public body at local, regional or national level;
 - embassies or consular offices of the sending Programme Country;
 - a social partner or other representative of working life, including chambers of commerce, craft/professional associations and trade unions;
 - a research institute;
 - a foundation;

- a school/institute/educational centre (at any level, from pre-school to upper secondary education, and including vocational education and adult education);
- a non-profit organisation, association, NGO;
- a body providing career guidance, professional counselling and information services;
- a Programme Country HEI awarded with an ECHE, or a Partner Country HEI recognised by competent authorities that has signed inter-institutional agreements with their Programme Country partners before the mobility takes place.

The following types of organisations are not eligible as receiving organisations for student mobility for traineeships: EU institutions and other EU bodies including specialised agencies (their exhaustive list is available on the website https://european-union.europa.eu/institutions-law-budget/institutions-and-bodies/institutions-and-bodies-profiles_en); organisations managing EU programmes such as Erasmus+ National Agencies (in order to avoid a possible conflict of interests and/or double funding).

Art. 5 Recognition of the Traineeship Activities

Grants are awarded in order to fund exclusively short-term or long-term full-time mobilities for traineeship abroad, which each institution must recognise as an integral part of the student's study curriculum in accordance with its internal didactic regulations.

For the purposes of this recognition, any (parts of) mobility carried out in virtual mode will be considered in the same way as physical mobility.

Art. 6 Financial support

Subject to what is specified in Art. 2, ERASMUS+ trainees may benefit from the following grants:

- a) a grant for individual support for physical mobility (Erasmus+ funding programme). Its monthly amount depends on the destination country and is calculated on the basis of actual days of mobility abroad. In particular, funding is allocated according to the cost of living, as follows:

In the case of green travel, a maximum of 4 additional days for the trip may be taken into account for the calculation of individual support.

Students in mobility under the Erasmus+ Programme who benefit from the European Union's contribution may not benefit from any other EU contributions for the same period, while contributions from other sources (university co-funding, ministerial co-funding, etc.) may be used to co-fund traineeship periods abroad.

Special provisions for the Scuola Normale Superiore

¹For a comprehensive list of Countries, please consult the Programme Guide 2021, pagg. 34-36.

The grants mentioned under the present article are not compatible with the increase of the Ph.D. scholarship foreseen in article 9, paragraph 7, letter a), of the Scuola Normale Superiore doctoral course regulations, nor with any other contributions granted by the Scuola and aimed at supporting the same mobility. If the ISEE indicator is lower than €24,335.11, according to the indications published by the National Authority (MUR), candidates are considered students or recent graduates with fewer opportunities and are therefore entitled to an additional grant (from Erasmus+ Community funds) of 250 EUR per month for long-term physical mobilities, in addition to the contribution referred to in art. 6 point a.

Students and recent graduates with fewer opportunities in a short-term doctoral mobility will receive the following fixed amount.
